The classically beautiful Mistress Lorelei Lee is called upon to train Trent on obedience, control and patience. Last time we saw Trent he was over eager and neglected to ask permission to cum. We all know the rules when it comes to these games and we all know the consequences if the rules are disregarded. The sweet yet stern Lorelei teases him with her perfect body and perfect ass. She covers every inch of Trent's chest and mouth with clothes pins then rubs her body against his. This seemingly sexy task is normally very pleasurable, however, with the added pain caused by the clothes pins Trent's mind is swimming with confusion of pain verses pleasure. She then lowers him down so that he can show his devotion by worshiping her freshly polished boots and her perfect stockinged feet. Lorelei moves on by teasing his senses and placing her pussy soaked panties near his nose but not close enough, of course.
