Every girl is different as far as what they are capable of handling or what they want during a shoot. Sophia is the kind that wants extreme bondage, grueling torment, and mind blowing orgasms. Today her body is subjected to a non-stop assault with everything I can use, and her orgasms are filled with agonizing punishment. Finally, Sophia, who is terrified of having her face covered, has her face covered and blindfolded. The pain quickly comes in the form of pure brutality, and we see Sophia ease into her own world. I quickly remove the blindfold and bring her back to the reality that the suffering will continue and she is to be present for it's entirety.
