What you don't understand is that I did this to you purposely, just to watch you suffer. Your weak attempts at worship and devotion bore me and I decided to do something evil. Rather than physically punish you I chose to completely ignore you. You see, training men is similar to training dogs in the sense that any attention is good attention so failing to acknowledge your existence is a much crueler punishment. I chuckled at your pathetic begging asking for my return. I've been amused reading you're lost without my company. I know you've missed me with my elegance and divine beauty and I've decided it's time to grace you, my dear viewer with my presence. It's time to get down on your knees and bow at the place where you were born to be. At the queen's feet!
