Spread wide atop a fuck box, she meets her captor. He torments her before exposing her naked body. Her clothes are ripped off, then more pain, followed by screams, and then the first orgasm of the day. She is then restrained by chains to hold her body down and ass up. She experiences pain that she has never felt before. Struggling to free herself, her asshole is violated and her pussy releases another orgasm. Finally she is bound by leather and chains to a steel device, that has her bent over, her arms in a strappado, and her legs spread wide. A brutal assault on her fragile body with heavy impact, nipple torment, and more mind blowing orgasms.
