Claire loves bondage. She gets paired up with Orlando, his sick mind has been working on evil shit to torment this little whore with. First, he has set a trap for Claire, where she is blindfolded, turned in circles to disorient her, then she has to back into one of three surprises. Next she is put in a device that keeps her perfectly still. Her head is covered in a latex hood and the torment continues in the form of tickling her until it becomes breath play. In the final scene, she is on her back and spread wide. Bastinado is served up this time, along with other torment, to push her into full submission.
