This movie was shot on December 21st, the day that the world was supposed to end. While the rest of the world was either impatiently waiting for that moment to happen or holing up underground Maitresse Madeline spent it with Lance Hart doing what she does best, prostate milking! This shoot is unlike other Divine Bitches shoots. Madeline oozes sex and purposely teases and denies Lance over and over again bringing him to the very edge of ecstasy and then snatching it away from him. Madeline milks Lances prostate giving him multiple mind blowing orgasms while prostate fluid continues to pour from his cock. This goes on and on bringing Lance to the point of pure submission. Does the world blow up before Lance is able to have one final release or the ultimate denial? Tune in to find out. Besides what else would a man want to do on his last days on earth?
