Abella was fucked from the time she signed on to shoot with us. We knew this slut was into this and loves being pushed to the limit, but once she is restrained she becomes an entirely different person. She switches from porn star to a primal creature that screams from the pain, yet her pussy drips from her suffering. She is put in several different positions, each one designed to serve the the purpose of tormenting this slut and making her orgasm. She is flogged, spanked, clamped, caned, and fucked.
