Kagney is new to this and is eager to change that. She wants to know what she has been missing out on, so we lock this busty blonde slut into our first device. The Pope goes between pain and pleasure to fuck with her, yet not break her out of the gate. After she orgasms harder than she ever has, and not even sure why, we move to the next positions. Each one more grueling than the previous one to ensure she suffers. She is taken down a path of S&M, shown what real domination is, then made to orgasm. Her mind is still trying to comprehend what has happened to her, and she knows that whatever it is, she wants more.
