Alex wanted to get her feet wet and see what it was like to be restrained and made to submit. She wanted to experience real domination in a safe setting where she could let go and allow her true submissive to come out and play. We get her restrained in her first position, which has her hands above her head awaiting The Pope. He enters and pokes and prods to find out what it takes to make this slut scream. She is reluctant at first, but in time she will scream... they all scream.
